« Deru » competition

In accordance with Edouard Deru's wishes, a violin competition reserved for young Belgian violinists was organized in the year of his death in 1928.

All candidates were required to have obtained a distinction in a Belgian musical establishment, Royal Conservatory or School of Music, subsidized by the Public Authorities.

Less prestigious than its big brother, the Vieuxtemps competition, it nevertheless managed to attract great names of the violin such as Pierre JETTEUR, Jean HERVE, Véronique BOGAERTS, ...

Since 2015 the "Deru" Competition is part of a trilogy.

Trilogy of violin competitions:

- " Vieuxtemps " Competition, accessible to violinists aged 26 years or less at the date of the first round.
- « Deru" Competition, open to violinists who have obtained a distinction in a musical establishment subsidized by the Belgian public authorities, and who are no more than 23 years old on the date of the first round of the competition.
- The "Crickboom" competition is open to students up to the age of 18, enrolled in a music institution subsidized by the Belgian government.
