Art. 1 – Conditions of admission

a) The Mathieu Crickboom Competition is open to violinists enrolled as regular students in a recognised and publicly funded music education institution in Belgium, namely :

- for the French Community: institutions of Enseignement Secondaire Artistique à Horaire Réduit (ESAHR) ;
- for the Flemish Community: institutions of Deeltijds Kunstonderwijs (DKO) ;
- for the German-speaking Community: the Musikakademie der Deutschsprachigen Gemeinschaft (Eupen).

b) The competition is open to students enrolled in at least the fourth year of instrumental studies, as certified by an official document issued by the relevant institution.

b.bis) The competition is open to candidates aged 18 years or under on the date of the competition.

c) All candidates take part in a single first round, known as the concert round, without distinction of categories.

d) Following the concert round, the jury assigns the candidates selected for the final to three categories, which it deems appropriate, solely on the basis of the artistic level observed during the performance, as follows:

- Cantabile category : intended for candidates whose technical and musical level allows for an expressive, lyrical and secure interpretation, without excessive virtuoso requirements. This category emphasises musicality, sound quality and intonation.
- Brillante category : intended for candidates demonstrating a more advanced technical mastery, precise articulation and the ability to tackle more demanding repertoire. It combines musicality and technical proficiency.
- Virtuoso category : intended for advanced candidates capable of performing virtuosic works requiring solid technique, great instrumental ease and a strong artistic personality. This is the most demanding category of the competition.

e) Candidates who were awarded a First Prize Mathieu Crickboom – Category A in the 2022 or 2024 editions may apply again for the competition. If selected, they will be assigned exclusively to the Brillante or Virtuoso categories, according to the jury's sovereign assessment based on the artistic level observed during the concert round.

Candidates who were awarded a Prix Mathieu Crickboom – Category B in the 2022 or 2024 editions are no longer eligible to participate in the competition.
